ABOUT ROMAL

Romal uses purpose and passion to equip people to heal the wounds of their past. He bravely offers up his own journey as a case study of raw transparency and refreshing honesty. As a full-time speaker and author, Romal guides audiences through the process of identifying and embracing their unique destiny.

Committed to living the six-word mission statement that defines his life—“I help hurting people find healing”—Romal’s platform and cross-sector relationships have positioned him as a global leader who guides individuals, organizations and institutions to recover from setbacks and achieve success by honoring the particularity of their unique stories. With an infectious style that has impressed thousands both nationally and international audiences, Romal moves people to action! Through compassion, and systemic change, he creates and environment that impacts the effectiveness of individuals, leaders, executives, and their teams.

Love Is an Inside Job: Getting Vulnerable with God

Faith in God plus therapy are the combination that leads to wholeness. Tune's story of his faith/therapy path to authenticity with God will empower you for your own life journey.

Tune is the son of a drug-addicted single parent mother, who herself, inherited deeply ingrained obstacles to self-love. He found his way out of poverty via the military. He graduated from Howard University and Duke School of Divinity. He was a minister, a sought-after speaker, and social entrepreneur. Outwardly, he was successful, an overcomer.

TESTIMONIALS

“Romal pulls back the veil and allows us to hear a Christian leader’s truth about hurt, unmet expectations, loneliness, loss and weakness. This revelation is mind shifting and long, long overdue.”

Michelle Lang
Write/Creator of “The Art of Tough Talks” experience and Campus Pastor @ Warner Pacific Univ.

“In a style that is raw and revealing in its honesty, he makes clear that achieving vulnerability is a tough challenge, but well worth the potential rewards.”

Nathan McCall
Author of Makes Me Wanna Holler: A Young Black Man in America

“This book is a beautiful reminder from a man who weaves his love for Jesus with real talk about vulnerability in a way that everyone can relate to and learn from.”

Bob Goff
Author of Love Does: Discover a Secretly Incredible Life in an Ordinary World

“I love books that fully engage you from the first page—with deep humanity, dear honesty, and yes vulnerability! Books like this. Read and meet a man on the real journey. It will change the way you see life, death, and perhaps even God”

Fr. Richard Rohr
O.F.M., author of Falling Upward and Breathing Under Water
